

The dance of stars: dense stellar systems from infant to old

MODEST 14

June, 2-6, 2014 @ Physikzentrum Bad Honnef

Argelander-
Institut für Astronomie

DFG Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft

Welcome everyone!

to

to MODEST 14

Grab your conference kit and badge

Staying at Physikzentrum (PBH)

Breakfast + lunch + coffee
+ dinner + beer at PBH

Staying at Hotel
Seminaris (HS)

Breakfast at HS,

lunch + coffee + dinner +
beer at PBH

Common facilities at PBH (conference venue)

Internet (WiFi) throughout the building, also in HS rooms

Reading room

Dining room (PBH-breakfast & lunch)

Cellar (dinner, beer & “Heraeus Abend”)

Foyer (coffee/tea; optionally lunch/dinner)

PC terminals

Printing & photocopying (please be gentle :-)

Parking in front of main building

Lecture hall (this one) at PBH

Wilhelm und Else Heraeus Hörsaal

Ultra-modern lecture hall with approx. 100 seats

Possibility to connect multiple notebooks and switch between them

To speakers: please keep your talk ready by the break immediately before your slot

Talk time: 20 min

Discussion time: 10 min

Questions/updates regarding accommodation, payment and reimbursement to

Kristina Biehl

Questions/updates regarding projection and submission of talk slides to

Christine Schulz

Ylva Schuberth

Questions/updates regarding program an SOC member

Sambaran Banerjee, Melvyn Davies, Douglas
Heggie, Pavel Kroupa, Susanne Pfalzner, Simon
Portegies Zwart, Fred Rasio, Alison Sills

Amendment

Wednesday, June 4

Maureen van den Berg will speak in place of Paolo Bianchini (14:45-15:05) on “Interacting binary populations in old open and globular clusters as seen by Chandra”